

PATTI WILLIAMS

Patti Williams is an ordained minister and certified life coach and has ministered for the last two and one-half decades. She has had the privilege of serving as the Pastor of Women's Ministries, Executive Director of a Crisis Pregnancy Center, President and Board Director for several other Christian Ministries, as well as the Countywide Youth Director. Williams also hosted her TV program, 'Issues of Life' and co-hosted various Christian radio programs that dealt with current issues.

Patti's calling to minister to the hurting has been evident throughout her life. She and Richard, her husband of over 35 years, currently lead the New Day Gathering in Cleveland, TN.

Patti and Richard have a terrific daughter and a great 'soon to be' son-in-law, a remarkable son and a wonderful daughter-in-law, and one joyful grandson.

